Dear Sir/Madam,

I was a insurance and superannuation client of the [REDACTED] through their financial advise [REDACTED] for at least 20 years during the 90's and 2000's. At one stage I was paying over $1000 per month on insurance premiums. I remember asking why the premium was so high and was told that it was normal and they even told me that I needed more insurance. Hence my superannuation savings were dwindling away. After more than 20 years my super was less than $100,000 even though I was a high salary earner. I definitely think that I was being over charged on premiums and being charged for advice that I did not receive. I would like the [REDACTED] to repay the money that was swindled from me.

Yours sincerely,

[REDACTED]
