Your submission:

Sir,

First my congratulations on your procedures to date in that at last there is a glimmer of hope that the greedy financial institutions may be limited in their rapacious dealing with their clients.

I am fortunate in that I have not been robbed by the banks, at least as far as I know, unless I can include the 17+% mortgage I suffered for a lot of years.

I am concerned in that the financial institutions show such a disgusting contempt for the folk who make them possible and the "don't care" attitude towards the reputation of our country.

Please Sir, do every thing you can to ensure the parliament do not smother this and please expose the many more shortcomings I understand are on your shortlist.

James Marshall
