Dear Kenneth Hayne

The Financial Services Royal Commission into the Banks has revealed they could not be trusted, nor can be trusted to do 'the right thing' and self-regulate into the future. Given the 'greed is good' mentality - it's time to separate them (The Banks) from their play money...OUR money.

Please ensure that the Savings and the Investment areas of the Banks are completely separated, it's time for Glass-Steagall separation. No more playing Monopoly with our money ever again.

This is the best and right outcome for the Australian public.

Thank you

Evelyn Lundstrom
