To Whom it may concern,

Why as a hard working devoted family man and tax payer I should be responsible for a commercial entities of greed when I have neither contributed to or benefitted from it?

I am extremely worried that all my savings and superannuation will be used to bail out the banks and financial institutions when the inevitable next GFC occurs.

They have made these grotesque profits out of nothing and CEO's etc received obscene bonuses.

If the boards of the institutions that have received bonuses then they should be the ones to bail the banks out, seeing it was their greed that that started this mess.
