I do not believe that the Royal Commission goes far enough ie my Bank [REDACTED] and all Banks hold monies that are being transferred from one Bank to another for up 3 days now in this age of computers it should take no more then 1 hour also overdraft fees again my Bank [REDACTED] charges $15 if i go over as little as 50c also i do not believe that the Royal Commission has taken into account the little person in all this and lets face it the majority of bank customers are the little person and as a pensioner i believe that the Royal Commission should hold more public submissions from the little person with small amounts in the bank ie under $1000 we are getting ripped off just as bad if not worse than the bigger people thank you Jim i can be contacted on email [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] my address is [REDACTED]
