The financial system needs to be reviewed. We all know we are on borrowed time but the government has recently passed laws that protect the banking system NOT us although we elected them to power and that protection is their purpose.

Bob Katter has developed a document that needs to be looked at and furthermore the glass steagle system needs to be implemented with urgency.

The fact that 5ere were only 8 sitting senators present to pass the law that steals mums and dads money during a bail-in situation is abhorrent!
