Introduce the Australian equivalent of Glass-Steagall. An obvious and urgent requirement to remove the risky business from banking core business, keep Australian's deposits safe and promote funds returning to business (which will lead to jobs and productivity) and away from creating asset bubbles (which leads only to a diminishing and stressed middle class). Do it for the good of the people of this nation. It will also reduce the economy's reliance on banking turnover as funds get funnelled into productive businesses and industries.
