

SUBMISSION ON POLICY ISSUES IDENTIFIED IN THE INTERIM REPORT

Submitted By: Jared Fletcher

Email: [REDACTED]

Phone Number: [REDACTED]

Submission for: My Self

Name of other person, business or organisation:

Do you agree to your submission being published: Yes

Do you agree to your full name being published: Yes

Your submission:

Glass-Steagall separation of commercial banks from investment banking and all other financial business should be considered as a instrument to improve the stability of banks and the financial system within Australia.

A small tax or fee on all financial transactions within Australia should be considered to reduce the destabilising effect high speed computerised trading and transactions have had on the financial system and speculation within the economy.