Dear Commissioner Hayne,

I just wish to bring the banking back in the way it was before, before privatisation. The one's that had money in the bank used to get a bit of good interest on their deposits, and the money used to be used by the banks to build government funded infrastructure. But now instead, the banks CEO's make megs-profits and the depositors get nothing, and if the bank falls into recession we lose all our money and superannuation is bailed-in! The banks make profits while the depositors lose their savings through the banks bad investments. So the solution is Glass-Steagall/old Commonwealth bank and let the others fend for themselves!

Also, no more off-shore money laundering through the Cayman Islands!
