This complaint is about [REDACTED] Cold call to say I had "won" $15000 worth of life insurance for 12 months. Lengthy sales pitch , I wasn't conned into giving my bank details but agreed to give credit card details, (yes I'm an idiot there) thing is the pleasant caller seemed less friendly after that. Havnt heard a thing since. Scam, I think so. Never heard of this company before. Just started being bombarded with cold calls from them from numerous different numbers. Every time you call back you just get a recorded message saying you have been called by an authorised member of [REDACTED] Annoying as hell! I will never ever take out a policy with this company simply because they are so damn annoying! I've called their 1300 number and demanded to be removed from their call list. The woman hung up on me. Awful company! Will never ever ever recommend them.
