From August 2001 until January 2005 I was an employee of [REDACTED]. This company was led by [REDACTED] and as they have now ceased trading, their contact is listed as [REDACTED].

Around 2004, I was aware my Superannuation invested with [REDACTED] had dramatically dropped by nearly half being several thousand dollars and when I raised this with the CEO, [REDACTED], he calmly advised.." we are all in the same boat..." [REDACTED] had around 100 employees in Australia at this time hence losses of many thousands of dollars at the hands of [REDACTED]. Were given no explanation or compensation by [REDACTED]. I submit this to the Royal Commission not expecting any compensation, however if other employees lodge similar complaints, there may be a need to question [REDACTED] over their activities during the this time. Kind regards, Jim Haw [REDACTED]
