I am writing to you regarding [REDACTED] I began the transfer process of my UK police pension over 2010. I had a meeting with a [REDACTED] representative [REDACTED] My pension was transferred some months later in the [REDACTED] in January 2018 I moved my super from [REDACTED] after discovering that I had been charged 7 years of ongoing advice fees when I had never been contacted by anyone after the initial meeting to transfer my pension (super) over. The only contact I received when statements were sent out. The last statement for 30 June 2017, showed advice fees totalling $2,038.12 for services not received. I have all my other statements as proof Graham Cann
