I wish to add my name to the long list of people (former ACCC Regulator, Allan Fels and former Reserve Bank Chairman, Bernie Fraser being 2 of many) who, thanks to the findings, of the Royal Commission into the Banks, demand that structural separation, of the vertical integration, (Superannuation, Financial Advice, Stock Brokering, and Insurance) of the Banking System, must be implemented, as a result of these findings!. A deep conflict of interest exists and is not in any way beneficial to their customers!. Thank You!, Desmond Whyte [REDACTED]
