To The Royal Commission I call on the Commission to demand that the Government pass legislation to break up the functions of the banks. The banking atrocities exposed by the Royal Commission are a direct consequence of unregulated banking which has been the case in Australia since 1984. All scope for conflicts of interest should be removed. Banks should not be involved in superannuation, insurance or speculation. There is already a Bill before Parliament providing for the separation of banking functions.. It is called the Banking System Reform(Separation Of Banks Bill 2018.) It was tabled by Bob Katter & seconded by Andrew Wilkie on June 25th this year. Liberal, ALP & other parties in the Parliament should get behind it. Yours Sincerely Simon Hall
