Having followed thus far the exposure of the corrupt practises of the banks to now #5 superannuation, structural separation of the banks is necessary. Legislation for bank separation has been tabled in the House of Representatives and needs to be debated and passed. The "fig leaf" macroprudential regulation of the banks by APRA,ASIC, ACCC and our Treasury has been exposed. We need a "People's Bank" controlled by the Government to protect our superannuation funds, as a second step, as our original Commonwealth Bank did, in protecting the principle of the General Welfare of the people, in asserting our sovereignty as a nation
