Sirs, As an ordinary Australian I have become very concerned by the Royal Commission into the banking sector and after much research I have come to the conclusion that banks shouldn't own super, or any other financial business. As I am now living on my super with no other means of support I believe this is one of the main reasons Australia now needs a Glass-Steagall structural separation of the banking system. This is in your power to recommend and should be done as a matter of priority. Regards Sean Dewling
