It is my belief that the only way to ensure that banks and insurance company's do not continue to steal from their customers is to Break the banks in to commercial and investment entities, as in the Glaas Steagle system that operated in the US, this re regulation of banking and finance would help ensure that there was no conflict of interest in the operation of this very essential service, the public and everyone I speak to are appalled at the level of corruption that has been allowed to happen by our so called leaders, it is time to put a stop to this criminality, other criminals go to jail, so should these criminals. I believe The Hon Bob Katter has introduced a bill into Parliament to re introduce a modern Glaas Steagle type bank separation here in Australia, this needs to be acted on immediately.
