1. The commercial banks should be separated by legislation from the investment banks so as to protect the Peoples savings and normal commercial day to day activities 2.Banks should not be involved in SUPERANNUATION. 3. The banks having the all in one structure as presently being experienced are to easily tempted to used their many investment entities to loot and steal from the peoples savings. 4. THE BANKING SYSTEM REFORM [Separation of Banks] Bill 2018 was introduced into the Australian parliament on the 25 June 2018 and would separate the commercial banks from all other financial activities in Australia. This Bill would structurally separate the banks as did Glass-Steagall legislation did in 1933.
