Greg,

All I've done is re stated the special condition as it stands in italics to make it stand out better.

As I said to you yesterday we did brief Bob Ole on this one who is happy to become involved before the event if need be given some of vexation expressed by Mrs Brauer contained in your client note. That said there may be a god and something could happen prior to 30 June 2013. Clients may become committed to a sale and require extra time? however the impression I get is that you are looking to remind them of this obligation now given that there is expressed concerns about the ongoing viability of this enterprise.
